Man accused in double-murder 'shoots' woman who rejected him 10 yrs ago

AMIL BHATNAGAR NOIDA, OCTOBER 1

A 27-YEAR-OLD woman died a day after she was shot at in Uttar Pradesh's Bijnor, allegedly by a man whose proposal she had rejected, police said. Nitika Sharma was shot at five times in her house allegedly by Ashwini aka Johnny Dada on Monday.

Five days ago, the accused allegedly shot dead two relatives of a local BJP leader, after which he absconded.

"On Monday evening, we received information that a woman had been shot by the accused wanted in a double murder. In further investigation we found that Ashwini wanted to marry Nitika since school. Once he heard that Nitika was getting married to another person, he sought revenge by shooting her. She was admitted to hospital, but succumbed to injuries," said Vishwajeet Srivastava, SP, Rural Bijnor.

According to the police, the accused proposed to Nitika almost 10 years ago in school, but she turned him down. Nitika then went to Dubai to study and work. Meanwhile, Ashwini found odd jobs and was on drugs, police said. Recently, the accused heard that Nitika was going to get married in December, for which she had left her job and returned home. On Monday evening, he allegedly entered her house while she was watching TV and shot at her. He then reportedly escaped in an e-rickshaw.

On Thursday, local BJP leader Bhim Singh's son Chandrabhan and nephew Krishna were shot dead allegedly by Ashwini in Bijnor. "In both cases, prima facie it appears that the motive was enmity. In the case of the double murders, there were some arguments between them and the accused years ago... Arrest will be made soon," said SP Srivastava.

Police said Ashwini's location has been identified in a jungle on the outskirts of the city. Drone surveillance is being used to ascertain his location.

Ramlalla's counsel: Is Wakf Board saying idgah razed to build Babri?

ANANTHAKRISHNANG

NEW DELHI. OCTOBER 1

CONTESTING THE Sunni Central Wakf Board's claim that a 50metre wall discovered during excavations by the Archeological Survey of India (ASI) in Ayodhya was part of an idgah, the counsel for Ramlalla Virajman, the deity of Ayodhya, on Tuesday asked whether the Board is saying that an idgah was demolished to make way for the Babri Masjid.

The counsel also said that the Muslim side had tried to drag the case, asking a witness during trial questions such as "where was the labour room where Ram was born?'

"Is it their case that the idgah was demolished to build Babri Masjid," senior advocate C S Vaidyanathan, appearing for Ramlalla, told a bench headed by Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi.

The bench, also comprising Justices S A Bobde, D Y Chandrachud, Ashok Bhushan and S Abdul Nazeer, is hearing appeals against the September 30, 2010 judgment of Allahabad High Court, which ordered a three-way division of the disputed area.

Vaidyanathan submitted that he was asking this since the Board had not contended anvtime earlier that there was any structure beneath the Babri Masjid, and that it was built on vacant land. In contrast, Ramlalla's 1989 suit had said that a temple was demolished to build the mosque, he said.

The submission invited sharp reactions from senior counsel Rajeev Dhavan, appearing for the Muslim side, who said, "The question of the idgah could only have arisen after the ASI dig." But Vaidyanathan continued and said "Muslims changed their stand" when they realised that a wall had been found as the ASI investigation progressed. He contended that not one witness "had spoken about an idgah", and added that it was mentioned first by three archeologists produced by the Muslim side.

Vaidyanathan said idgahs are built in areas away from local habitation, while the Ramkot area, where the wall was discovered, was "full of habitation". The senior counsel said the ASI report also mentioned presence of 28 other walls, some running perpendicular to the 50metre wall. This, he said, indicated that it may have been walls of rooms or halls, etc.

But Dhavan and senior advocate Meenakshi Arora, also representing the Muslim parties, objected and said the ASI had not excavated the other walls, and that these did not join the 50metre wall.

Justice Bobde then asked Dhavan to submit a drawing which show parts, if any, joined to the wall and those which were not.

Vaidyanathan said it is "unfortunate" that the Muslim side is criticising the ASI. He said ASI's experts are invited even to Thailand and Cambodia, where they do a "commendable job".

Arora had sought to compare archeology with the opinion of handwriting experts. On this, Vaidyanathan said the comparison showed "erroneous appreciation of knowledge required in archeology".

J&K Cong leader's brother booked for harbouring militants

ARUN SHARMA JAMMU, OCTOBER 1

THE BROTHER of a senior Congress leader and former minister G M Saroori is among half a dozen people booked by Jammu and Kashmir Police on charges for harbouring militants in Kishtwar district.

Mohammad Shafi Saroori has been booked along with Masood Matto, Mohammad Muzaffar Shah, Ghulam Mohammad Kamal, Tousif Gundna and Syed Ahmed. Of them, Masood Matto has been arrested, while Gundna is already in jail in Jammu.

Shafi Saroori is the younger brother of senior Congress leader G M Saroori.

All of them have been charged with providing logistics and shelter to militants, including longest surviving Hizbul

Mujahideen militant Jahangir Saroori and Osama, a senior police officer said.

Jahangir Saroori, according to the police, conspired along with other militants, including Osama, to revive militancy in Chenab Valley region, which had been declared free of terror since 2013. Osama was among three militants killed in a joint operation by police and security forces in Ramban district on Saturday.

All the slain militants were responsible for the killing of senior BJP leader Anil Parihar and RSS functionary Chanderkant Sharma in Kishtwar town on November 1 last year.

Shafi Saroori's son Waseem Saroori claimed the house where the militants allegedly stayed was rented out by them and this fact has been brought to the notice of the police as well.

A senior police officer said investigations were in progress.

Army: Another militant killed in encounter at Ganderbal

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE SRINAGAR, OCTOBER 1

THE ARMY said it has killed another militant in the upper reaches of Ganderbal, four days after a militant was killed when an encounter began on Saturday.

"One more terrorist (total two Pakistanis) killed. Weapon and war like stores recovered. Operation in progress," Srinagarbased Army's Chinar Corps tweeted on Tuesday.

The encounter near Gangabal, a high-altitude lake in the upper reaches of Ganderbal, is one of the longest gunfights between militants and the Army in recent years. Even though no further contact was established with the militants in last three days, Army teams continued searches in the area, apprehending that the militant was part of a large group that might have recently infiltrated into the Valley.

Tejas passengers to be compensated for delays

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE NEW DELHI, OCTOBER 1

IN A first, passengers on the IRCTC-run Tejas Express plying between Delhi and Lucknow will receive a compensation if the train is delayed. The compensation will be paid by an insurance company.

The passengers shall receive Rs 100 if the train is delayed by more than an hour, and will receive Rs 250 if the train is late by more than two hours. This is over and above the Rs 25 lakh free insurance that passengers get for this train. The insurance also includes a coverage of Rs 1 lakh against household theft and robbery during the travel period of the passengers.

After the completion of the journey, the passengers will have to file their claims with the insurance company online or via a toll free number or through post. IRCTC has said it might take two to three days to settle the claims.

The Delhi-Lucknow Tejas train, which starts operations on October 4, is to be flagged off by UP Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath in Lucknow. Commercial operations will begin on October 5. The second Tejas Express, which will ply between Ahmedabad and Mumbai, is to be launched later this year.

The Railways Ministry has chosen IRCTC to run the trains as an experiment, a prelude to bring in private players to run trains on selected routes in the future. IRCTC will be in charge of ticket sales and checking, onboard services, cleanliness, food and everything involved in dealing with passengers. Indian Railways will receive haulage charges from IRCTC for physically transporting the train.

The plan in the pipeline is to lease out around 150 routes across India to private train operators through competitive bidding.

Clampdown theory a vestige of a neighbour's imagination: J&K admn

DAYS AFTER Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan's speech at the United Nations General Assembly, the Jammu and Kashmir administration said the "clampdown theory is the vestige of imagination of a neighbour".

"By peddling half truths and deliberate lies, Pakistan was attempting to divert attention from its own terror record, including its brazen support to militants in J&K," a spokesperson said in a release. "To begin with, not only was no blanket curfew imposed in J&K, limited restrictions on movement that had been imposed by the local administration in some parts to prevent miscreants from fomenting trouble too were relaxed in less than a week's time."

The spokesperson described

Khan's speech as a "story of falsehood". "Prolonged relaxations in restrictions were made in most parts of J&K and Ladakh beginning August 10 and since then the quantum and frequency of these relaxations has been progressively increasing to a point that today almost the entire state is free of restrictions," he said. Saying that a "deliberate and false narrative" is being created, the administration gave a detailed account of air traffic movement. vehicular movement on highway and "access to 200 journalists".

"The very fact that all highways remain open, all air operations are normal and traffic is plying normally is sufficient to prove the 'clampdown theory' is the vestige of imagination of a neighbour who has been dismayed to find that the situation in J&K has remained peaceful, with not a single live bullet being fired," the spokesperson said.

Missing BSF sub-inspector found dead

Jammu: A BSF sub-inspector, who had gone missing while crossing a nullah near the International Border in Jammu and Kashmir's Samba district three days ago, was found dead by Pakistani Rangers on Tuesday. Paritosh Mondal's body was handed over to BSF by Pakistani

Rangers at the Octroi border outpost, official sources said. Mondal, who hailed from West Bengal's Nadia district, had gone missing while patrolling the Aik nullah on September 28. A joint search was carried out by the BSF and an SDRF team over the last three days, sources said, adding that villagers on the Indian side and Pakistani Rangers helped with the search operations. ENS

Yasin Malik trial to be held

JAMMU. OCTOBER 1

A TADA Court here on Tuesday decided to hold the trial of IKLF chairman Yasin Malik, who is currently lodged in Delhi's Tihar jail, through video conferencing in the case of abduction of then Home Minister Mohammad Sayeed's daughter Rubiya Sayeed in 1989 and the killing of four Indian Air Force personnel in 1990.

Presiding Officer Subash C Gupta noticed that Yasin Malik was not present among the accused in court. The judge then referred to a communication received from Tihar jail's DSP saying that the Ministry of Home Affairs' CTCR Division has ordered that the accused shall not be moved from prison and taken out of the jurisdiction of NCT of Delhi for a period of six months with effect from April 30, or till the completion of trial in Delhi Court, whichever is earlier.

The court directed the Superintendent of Tihar Central Jail to make necessary arrangements for production of the accused through video conferencing on October 23.

After hearing CBI's Special Public Prosecutor Pavitar Singh and Public Prosecutor Vijay Dogar, the judge also issued nonbailable warrants against accused Shoukat Ahmed Bakshi and Javed Ahmed Mir for their failure to appear before the court.

Pak hands over body of drowned BSF official akistan on Tuesday handed over to India the body of a Border Security Force (BSF) sub-inspector who had drowned in a river along the International Border in Jammu last week, officials said. The body of Paritosh Mandal was found "deep inside" the neighbouring country's territory and the Pakistan Rangers informed the BSF about the recovery, they said. Mandal, 54, went missing in the Aik Nallah in Arnia sector on September 28 when he and two other troopers were patrolling along the India-Pakistan International Border.

Meanwhile, two persons, including a BSF jawan, were injured as Pakistani Army continued ceasefire violations by targeting forward posts and villages along the LoC and the border in Poonch and Kathua districts of J&K on Tuesday. PTI

SC restores Dalit status quo, but 'forwards' too make gains

Quotas For EWS Put Them On Same Footing As Underprivileged

Subodh.Ghildiyal @timesgroup.com

New Delhi: The Supreme Court judgment recalling its March 2018 order which diluted the flagship Dalit atrocities Act completes the restoration of status quo forced by SCs/STs through their vigorous protests.

The outrage that followed the judicial imposition of checks on implementation of Prevention of Atrocities (POA) Act and the unanimity among the political class that the court order should be annulled had pushed the Modi government into a corner.

The latter sought review of the controversial order and adjudication, brought a legislation to restore the original law in December last year which sailed through Parliament. Interestingly, so did the legislation for a quota for economically disadvantaged 'forwards', intended to assuage upper castes. Tuesday's apex court order lends finality to the corrective action. It's a relief for the ruling BJP which was under attack from political rivals and civil society alike.

Given the persistent demand among upper castes and OBCs that the stringent POA needed to be diluted, and the strong resonance the March 2018 judgment found among them, the political-judicial imprimatur on the inviolability of the contentious law somewhat repairs the political leverage that Dalits enjoyed over decades and which appeared on the wane.

As the affirmative action for Dalits appeared under threat, high-profile anti-Dalit incidents, from suicide of Rohith Vemula to Koregaon-Bhima attacks, introduced a social and political dimension to the debate.

The retaliatory protests demonstrations that shook Maharashtra in January 2018 and the April 2 national bandh against dilution of POA Act—raised the spectre of permanent caste rupture.

Given the sense of siege among the community, reinstituting of safeguards is likely to douse the tempers. But if it all seems back to square one, a major gainer have been the upper castes which used the situation to extract the impossible.

During the climax of the debate on Dalit rights and the correctives taken by the BJP regime, the forwards organised themselves in a way that the saffron defeat in its forts of Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan in December 2018 appeared their doing.

Rattled by assembly defeats and with Lok Sabha polls looming, the Modi government carved reservations for upper castes by introducing 'economic criteria' for quotas — angrily derided by rights activists as "perverse"

It has put the historically underprivileged and the privileged castes on the same footing on the issue of empowerment, hitherto an unthinkable proposition.

Thailand not to send Dawood man to India

Bharti.Jain@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: In a setback to India's efforts to obtain the custody of senior D Company operative Munna Jhingada from Thailand, where he served 16 years in prison for an attempt on underworld don Chhota Rajan's life, a Thai court of appeal has overturned a lower court verdict of 2018 holding him to be an Indian citizen and okaying his extradition to India.

Sources in Indian intelligence agencies rued the development, especially in the light of unimpeachable evidence fingerprints, DNA samples of his family members in India, college leaving certificate and copies of FIR registered against him in Mumbai for crimes including murder they had presented to the low-

This, an intelligence source pointed out, was precisely why Islamabad left no stone unturned — using influence through local contacts of ISI in the Thai system to get a favourable order from the court of appeal — to secure his deportation by anyhow proving him to be a Pakistani national. Sources here attributed the setback to ISI's success in "working the system in Thailand". According to intelligence sources, Jhingada had been under the patronage of Pakistan's ISI for being a trusted leader of D Company.

15 yrs on, Ishrat's mom gives up fight for justice

Saeed.Khan@timesgroup.com

Ahmedabad: The mother of Ishrat Jahan, who was killed in an allegedly staged encounter on the outskirts of the Gujarat capital in 2004, informed a CBI court on Tuesday that 15 years of waiting for justice had shattered her spirit and left her with no option but to with-

"I am heartbroken, and my spirit is shattered at the perpetuation of this culture of impunity. I have thus instructed my counsel, Vrinda Grover, that I have lost the will to fight and can no longer participate in the proceedings before the CBI court. The long-drawn and labyrinthine judicial process has exhausted and frustrated me," Mumbai-based Shamima Kaudraw from the case.

sar says in a letter to CBI on September 18, the contents of which were revealed in court on Tuesday. The letter requests CBI to convey to the judge that she no longer wishes to be party to the judicial proceedings.

Shamima's letter cites the decision to drop proceedings against former IPS officers D G Vanzara and N K Amin in the encounter case as one of the reasons for her disenchantment with the judicial process. "Had never imagined that seeking truth and justice could be such an uphill, arduous, life-consuming and almost impossible task... After this prolonged fight for justice, I now feel hopeless and helpless," she writes. Besides Ishrat, three others were killed on suspicion of being terrorists.

All humans are equal, even in their failings: SC pposition parties had swiftly pinned the verdict on BJP accusing the ruling party of being anti-Dalit even as the government rushed to the SC seeking review of its ruling. Soon, it amended the law to nullify the SC verdict thus ensuring that the ruling was virtually never enforced. On Tuesday, however, the response of the political class was strikingly subdued as a three-judge bench of Justices ings, and it would be against fundamental human equality to treat SCs and STs as persons who are particularly prone to lodge false reports for revenge or benefits. It said making such a presumption would be "adding insult to injury" to those who have suffered discrimination from ages. "As a matter of fact, suffered for long, hence, if we cannot provide them protective discrimination beneficial to them, we cannot place them at all at a disadvantageous position that may be causing injury to them by widening inequality and against the very spirit of our Constitution," the court said. owever, BJP stood firmly with its CM face for the Lensuing polls, saying the apex court had not called for Fadnavis's prosecution. The CM's office in Mumbai also asserted that the SC's verdict "has no bearing on Fadnavis to continue as a public representative or to contest the next election"

The two cases which Fadnavis did not mention in his election affidavit of 2014 are "summary case no. 232 of 1996 (u/s 500 of IPC — defamation) and regular criminal case no. 343 of 2003 under various sections of IPC, both pending before Nagpur courts". Ukey had also challenged Fadnavis's election on the same ground — filing of a false affidavit-before the Bombay HC in 2014, which was dismissed on August 19, 2015.

With the SC reviving proceedings on Ukey's complaint, it could give an impetus to his appeal in the SC against the Bombay HC decision to dismiss the election petition. Though the assembly's tenure will end soon, an adverse order in either of the proceedings — the complaint before the Nagpur court or in the election appeal before the SC — could cause embarrassment to the CM in the coming elections. However, it appears remote that the courts will decide on Ukey's complaint and appeal that soon.
