Soon, special protection force for Corbett National

LALMANI VERMA DEHRADUN, AUGUST 28

THE UTTARAKHAND Cabinet on Wednesday gave its nod for the creation of a Special Tiger Protection Force in Corbett National Park, during a meeting that was chaired by Chief Minister Trivendra Singh Rawat.

Corbett national park, covering an area of 521 square km, is situated at the foothills of the Himalayas.

Cabinet minister and government spokesperson Madan Kaushik said after the meeting that the Centre will fund the force. A total of 85 posts have been sanctioned. These include the posts of one Assistant Conservator of Forests, three forest ranger officers and 81 special tiger guards.

According to the another proposal the Cabinet approved, the state will use 697 hectares of land in Haridwar for Kumbh Mela, 2021. The land currently belongs to Uttar Pradesh and Kaushik said a decision on the transfer of its rights to Uttarakhand will be taken at a later time.

The division of various government assets between the two states has been pending since the formation of Uttarakhand. Recently, Chief Secretaries of both states had met to discuss the unresolved issues.

The Cabinet also gave its approval to a proposal giving a concession of Rs 4.04 crore in rovalty on construction material to be used in the development of the 17.23-km Rishikesh bypass, being developed at cost of Rs 514 crore under the Char Dham Road project.

The state government had received a request from the Centre in this regard.

Booked for kidnap, Chinmayanand says 'missing' woman part of conspiracy

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE LUCKNOW, AUGUST 28

A DAY after former BIP MP Chinmayanand was booked in a case of alleged abduction of a Law student of a college in which he is the president of the managing committee, the BJP leader on Wednesday claimed that his name is being maligned as part of a conspiracy, and likened the case to that of Uttar Pradesh legislator Kuldeep Singh Sengar, an

On Tuesday evening, an FIR was registered at Kotwali police station of Shahjahanpur against Chinmayanand under IPC Sections 364 (kidnapping or abducting in order to murder) and 506 (criminal intimidation). The FIR was registered on the complaint of the woman's father.

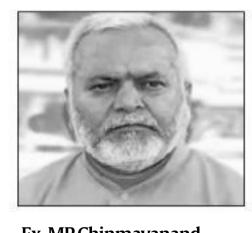

The woman is allegedly missing since Saturday.

On Tuesday, ADG (Bareilly zone) Avinash Chandra had told The Indian Express that 2-3 days ago, the police had found CCTV footage that ostensibly showed the woman entering a Delhi hotel with a youth on Friday.

According to police sources, the woman allegedly called her mother the same day. Wednesday, Shahjahanpur Superintendent of Police, Shivasimpi Channappa, said police are trying to trace the woman and have picked up a suspect for questioning in connection with the alleged extortion text sent to Chinmayanand on WhatsApp on August 22.

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA NEW DELHI, AUGUST 28

> MUGHAL EMPEROR Babur neither visited Ayodhya, nor ordered the demolition of a temple to construct a mosque in 1528 at the Ram Janmbhoomi-Babri masjid site, a Hindu outfit claimed before the Supreme Court on Wednesday.

> The Akhil Bhartiya Sri Ram Janam Bhoomi Punarudhar Samiti, a defendant in a lawsuit filed by a Muslim party in the case, referred to books like 'Tuzuk-i-Baburi' or 'Baburnama', 'Humayunnama', 'Akbarnama' and 'Tuzuk-i-Jahangiri' before a five-judge Constitution bench headed by Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi to highlight its point that none of these talked about the existence of Babri Masjid.

Senior advocate P N Mishra, appearing for the outfit, said these books did not talk about destruction of the temple or construction of the Babri mosque in Ayodhya by Mir Baqi, the commander of the first Mughal emperor.

"Babur did not enter Ayodhya and, therefore, he had no occasion to direct demolition of the temple and construction of the mosque in 1528 AD and moreover, there was no person with the name of Mir Bagi as his commander," Mishra said. 'Baburnama' is the first historical book so far as the case of Muslims is concerned, Mishra said, adding, "I, being the defendant, want to disprove their case. They said that the our temple be declared as mosque. If any building is to be declared a mosque then they will have to prove that Babur was the 'wakif' of the place.'

It was established that Babur did not make the mosque and it was built by Aurangzeb, who destroyed temples at places like Mathura and Kashi, Mishra responded, adding that in a civil lawsuit, the defendant's duty is to disprove the case of the plaintiff.

The bench then asked what would happen to the prayer of the Muslim party seeking a declaration of the place as the mosque after the demolition of the structure. The lawyer said that he was seeking a dismissal of the suit on the grounds of incorrect pleadings.

Amid Haryana turmoil, Cong may face crisis in Jharkhand MLAs, could leave the party". certain things which are there...

MANOJ C G NEW DELHI, AUGUST 28

THE CONGRESS, which is tackling turmoil in its Haryana unit, could plunge into a crisis in Iharkhand too.

A section of the state party leadership, it is learnt, is upset with the appointment of former Lok Sabha MP Rameshwar Oraon as president of the Jharkhand Congress unit. Some leaders also predicted an exodus from the party ahead of the Assembly elections, due in three months.

Sources said several senior party leaders, including former

Rameshwar Oraon

Union Minister Subodh Kant Sahay, are not happy with Oraon's appointment. And in the line of fire, is AICC in-charge for Jharkhand, R P N Singh. When contacted, Sahay told The Indian Express that he has "nothing to say about the people who have been appointed since they are our colleagues" but added that "the interests of Congress workers and the Congress party are suffering because of the vested interests of RPN Singh". Sahay alleged that Singh

Meanwhile, the Congress is yet to take a decision on the turmoil in its unit in Haryana, another poll-bound state. While senior party leaders said former CM Bhupinder Singh Hooda will not leave the party, they admitted that the problem is far from resolved. Hooda wants state Congress president Ashok Tanwar to be replaced.

AICC general secretary incharge of the state, Ghulam Nabi Azad, has had a meeting with Congress president Sonia Gandhi, but sources said the party is yet to find a compromise formula acceptable to all factions.

A SPECIAL NIA court has convicted 19 people, including four Bangladeshi nationals, in the 2014 Burdwan blast case, officials said here on Wednesday.

All the convicts confessed before the court, they added. Two people were killed when an improvised explosive device, that they were allegedly making, went off in the busy Khagragarh locality of Burdwan district on October 2, 2014.

The house where the explosion occurred was rented by the banned Jamat-ul-Mujaheedin of Bangladesh (IMB), who masked it as a burga stitching factory, officials said.

"The investigation revealed a conspiracy by IMB to radicalise, recruit and provide training in arms and explosives to its members in India as well as to commit terrorist acts and wage war against the democratically established Governments of India and Bangladesh," the NIA said in a statement. A large number of IEDs, explosives, hand grenades, training videos were recovered during investigation, it said.

Pak claim forces Rahul to clarify stand on Kashmir

J&K India's Internal Matter, Pak Instigating Violence: Rahul

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: Looking to contain a backlash over his name being used by Pakistan while moving the UN on Jammu & Kashmir, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Wednesday rushed to clarify his and Congress's position saying Kashmir was India's internal issue and Islamabad was guilty of instigating violence. In a series of tweets, Rahul said though he disagreed with the government on many issues, Kashmir was India's "in ternal matter". "I disagree with this government on many issues. But let me make this absolutely clear: Kashmir is India's internal issue and there is no room for Pakistan or any other foreign country to interfere in it... There is vio lence in Jammu & Kashmir. There is violence because it is instigated and supported by Pakistan which is known to be the prime supporter of terrorism across the world," he said.

The clarification is the first time that Rahul has criticised Pakistan directly for the situation in J&K after the August 5 vote in Parliament defanging the state's special status. So far, he and Congress have strongly criticised the government for government's actions in J&K.

The clarification and a subsequent statement from Congress alleging Pakistan had 'mischievously" dragged Rahul's name in its letter failed to prevent a sharp attack from BJP, which demanded an apology from Congress for speak ing in the "same voice" as Pakistan on the Kashmir issue.

Party spokesperson Randeep Surjewala, however, slammed Pakistan for "mischievously" dragging Rahul's name in the petition to justify its "lies and misinformation" on J&K. He also criticised I&B minister Javadekar for "doing Full report on www.toi.in

Rahul has insulted nation, given Pak a handle to target India: BJP

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: BJP seized on Rahul Gandhi's remarks that the situation in J&K was bad and there were reports of violence and deaths and said their use by Pakistan as "evidence" in its submission to the UN showed Congress in a bad light like never before.

Information and broadcasting minister Prakash Javadekar said Congress and Rahul should apologise to the nation for spreading lies about J&K, which have been used by Pakistan for its propaganda purpose. He said the Congress leader's tweet on Wednesday seeking to clarify his position was a reversal from his previous position due to public pressure. He al-

Rahul a 'political juvenile', says guv

Rahul Gandhi behaved like a "political juvenile" on the Kashmir issue despite being "a boy of a renowned family", J&K governor Satya Pal Malik said on Wednesday while addressing a press conference in Srinagar. Malik said Rahul behaved like a "political juvenile" which resulted in his name being mentioned in Pakistan's letter to UN. The governor said the curbs were imposed for the safety and security of the people. "The medium of phone and internet is used less by people and mostly by militants and Pakistanis. The medium is also used for mobilisation and indoctrination. It is a kind of weapon (which is often) used against us, so we have stopped it. Services will be resumed gradually," he said, adding that mobile phones will first start ringing in Kupwara and Handwara areas of Kashmir. TNN & AGENCIES

Islamabad: Pakistan railway day that a full-fledged war with India will possibly occur

Addressing an event in Rawalpindi, Ahmed said the time for a "final freedom struggle for Kashmir" has arrived and warned that war with India this time will be the "last war" "If UNSC wanted to solve the Kashmir issue, it would have held a plebiscite in Kashmir by now. The fate of Kashmir will now be decided by the youth of Kashmir," the minister said.

The reference to UN and within India's "constituresolutions raised eyebrows tional space". Even in its inias it seemed to be at odds with Moscow's position in the past on the J&K issue.

The Russian deputy chief of mission, Roman Babushkin, clarified though that Russia only had the UN Charter in mind and that there was no mention to any specific UN resolution. "Let's smake it very clear that there was no specific resolution mentioned. Russia and India are founder members of United Nations...we should respect UN Charter. We should respect its principle of non-interference in domestic affairs," said the diplomat. While he said there both sides asked for it, Babushkin added Russia would like to see more dialogue between India and Pakistan.

When asked if Russia was concerned over reports in the international media about the lockdown in the Valley, Babushkin reiterated that it again was an internal matter of India. "It's up to the Indian government to make the situation calm, peaceful and developing (sic) for the sake of the people", he said.

While talking about the need to tone down the rhetoric by both nuclear-armed countries, Babushkin recalled India's no-first-use commitment. When reminded of defence minister Rajnath Singh's remark suggesting a possible rethink on no-first-use, he described it as India's domestic matter. Russia's clarification about its position also came on the day foreign minister S Jaishankar met his counterpart Sergey Lavrov in Moscow.

50,000 vacancies to be filled soon: Guv

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Srinagar: Jammu & Kashmir governor Satya Pal Malik on Wednesday announced that his government would fill 50,000 vacancies in various departments in the next few months. He urged the youth to come forward and participate as this would be the largest single recruitment drive ever in Jammu & Kashmir or Ladakh. Stating that his government was working with various central agencies to put together a scheme to provide a minimum support price for the apple crop, Malik revealed that National Agricultural Cooperative Marketing Federation of India was willing to commit over Rs5,000 crore for procuring more than 50% of apple production of J&K. This would benefit over seven lakh apple farmers, he added.

The governor mentioned that a number of "important decisions" had recently been taken regarding Jammu & Kashmir which he said were historic and would open new vistas for the growth of all its three mir and Ladakh.

The governor also announced that restoration of normalcy and deepening of democracy remained the government's priority and, as a first step, elections to block development councils would be conducted and completed before the end of October.

Malik further said there had been a constant endeavour to relax restrictions as quickly as possible. As of now, 81 out of 111 police station areas in Kashmir had already got daytime relaxations and further easing would be considered in the days to come. the governor added.

India airlines not hit yet by Pak restrictions

New Delhi/Islamabad: Pakistan has started imposing restrictions for India in its airspace. On Wednesday it closed three routes in Karachi airspace for flights up to 26,000 feet till Saturday. However, Indian carriers say that as of now, they are not affected by this restriction. "Our contingency plans are in place as we have to revert to what we did from February 27 to July 16 when Pakistan airspace was closed for overflying," said a senior official of an Indian carrier about the notice to airmen (Notam) issued by Pakistan Civil Aviation Authority on Wednesday. This came a day after Pakistan's science and technology minister Fawad Chaudhry said his country is mulling "complete closure" of its airspace for traffic from India.

The notam said that all Karachi-bound flights will have to abide by the modifications between Thursday and Saturday.

SC seeks govt reply on curbs in Valley, allows Yechury trip

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Wednesday sought the Centre's response within seven days on two PILs seeking lifting of the unprecedented clampdown on communication facilities in the Kashmir Valley, alleging that it violated freedom of speech and rights of residents as well as the media. As petitioners Anuradha Bhasin and Tehseen Poonawala drew attention of a bench of Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi and Justices S A Bobde and S Abdul Nazeer to the alleged shutdown of communication facilities in Kashmir Valley, solicitor general Tushar Mehta said one of the petitioner was a busybody who excelled in giving lectures in TV studios. Refusing to be drawn into a verbal duel, the bench asked the SG to file the Centre's response in a week.

In another development, the SC permitted CPM general secretary Sitaram Yechury to visit Srinagar to inquire about the health of party colleague and former MLA Yousuf Tarigami but warned him against indulging in any political activity. He will finally visit Srinagar on Thursday. The court also permitted a Jamia Millia student to visit his parents in Anantnag under police protection, if required.

Yechury had complained that he was not able to inquire about the wellbeing of Tarigami and his attempts to visit Srinagar had been thwarted by the authorities. He claimed that Tarigami was not in good health and he would have to be shifted to AIIMS in New Delhi. Yechury gave an undertaking to strictly adhere to the courtattached condition to his visit.

After being denied entry into J&K twice, Yechury will he petitions will be heard immediately after the SC concludes the day-to-day hearing on the Ayodhya dispute case. By that time, the UN General Assembly, where Pakistan is likely to raise the issue, will be over while some relaxation in current restrictions in the state can be expected.

With the SC agreeing to test the constitutional validity of the August 5 presidential order — the Constitution (Application to Jammu & Kashmir) Order, 2019 which superseded the Constitution (Application to Jammu & Kashmir) Order, 1954, as well as the addition of Clause 4 to Article 367 making the Constitution of India applicable to J&K — the matter has now become subjudice.

The petitioners have also challenged the J&K (Reorganisation) Act, which received the President's assent on August 9, bifurcating the state into two UTs. They also challenged the validity of a declaration issued by the President on August 6, which read, "From August 6, 2019, all clauses of the said Article 370 shall cease to operate.. and all provisions of this Constitution as amended from time to time, without any modification or exceptions, shall apply to the state of Jammu & Kashmir.

The petitioners' main argument was that the President did not have the power to change provisions of the Constitution, as applicable to J&K, and by hollowing out Article 370, the government had seriously wounded the federal character of governance in India.

They said any alteration of the provision providing special status to J&K could have been done only with the concurrence of the state assembly. However, the Union gov ernment took the concurrence of the governor, the state being under central rule, which amounted to the central government consulting itself. The petitioners argued that reorganisation of J&K is also unconstitutional as it downgraded a state into UTs.

SC to hear pleas On Article 370 Didn't support curbs on media in J&K: Press Council chief

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: Press Council chairman Justice (retd) C K Prasad who came under fire for "unilaterally" moving Supreme Court to intervene in a petition to remove curbs on media in Kashmir, claimed on Wednesday that he had not supported curbs on media freedom in Kashmir. Citing portions of the intervening petition he had filed to buttress his argument, Prasad also singled out The Hindu editor N Ram and asked him what he would choose if there was a "head on collision between individual rights and national interest".

Prasad was unanimously criticised by media bodies including The Editors Guild of India on Tuesday for moving the apex court allegedly in support of restrictions imposed on media and for not consulting the 28-member general body of the PCI before doing so. In a letter attacking The Hindu editor, Prasad alleged that the very "premise" on which he had "built his superstructure" that Prasad had supported the communication blockade in Kashmir—"is a lie"

Muslim bodies call for restoration of normalcy in Kashmir

uslim minority organisations on Tuesday passed a resolution calling for restoration of normalcy in Kashmir even as they said they have full faith in the apex court and would wait for its decision on the legal validity of the nullification of Article 370 before taking any action. "Lifting of curfew, communication lockdown, access to emergency services including healthcare, and opening of the educational institutions must be done immediately. For this, the government must act immediately," the organisations demanded. The resolution was endorsed by top functionaries of Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind. Jamaat-e-Islami Hind and Markazi argued the Kashmir press was not being able to discharge its duties due to the communication lockdown, Prasad said he had sought to intervene because Bhasin's writ petition spoke of right of journalists to free and fair reporting on the one hand, and national interest of integrity and sovereignty on the other."
