Terrorists hit govt programme, kill 2 in South Kashmir

UNIDENTIFIED Militants escape, one official battling for life

■ letters@hindustantimes.com

SRINAGAR: Unidentified terrorists killed a sarpanch and a local administration official in South Kashmir's Anantnag on Tuesday as they targeted a prominent government outreach programme for which several people had gathered at a panchayat house.

The suspects lobbed grenades and opened indiscriminate fire on the gathering, in which seven people sustained injuries, according to locals. Two of them had succumbed to injuries later at a hospital.

"Under the back-to-village programme, locals and officials were in the village when the attack took place. A village sarpanch and a government employee were killed," said assistant commissioner development, Anantnag, Mohammad Aslam.

The second phase of the "back to village" programme was launched by the Union Territory administration this week after the first Lt Governor of Jammu & Kashmir, GC Murmu, said 5,000 officers will reach out to the people in each panchayat.

EXTENSION FOR PAKISTAN ARMY CHIEF QUASHED BY TOP COURT

■ letters@hindustantimes.com

ISLAMABAD: The Supreme Court of Pakistan on Tuesday suspended the extension of army chief General Qamar Javed Bajwa's tenure until a hearing on Wednesday, in an unprecedented move that threatens to shake the power structure of the country.

Prime Minister Imran Khan had on August 19 approved the extension in Gen Bajwa's tenure for three years. According to Geo News, Pakistan's chief justice Asif Saeed Khosa said during the hearing, "The entire process was upside down. First, the Cabinet should have given the approval, then the PM and President should have been advised."

Khan later chaired an emergency Cabinet meeting and took back the notification. Pakistan minister Shafqat Mahmood said a summary was sent to President Arif Alvi to issue a fresh notification after the approval of the Cabinet.

This is the first big government outreach since the state was bifurcated into two Union Territories - J&K and Ladakh -- on August 5.

The village sarpanch was identified as Rafiq Shah and the government employee as Zahoor Ahmed Sheikh.

Soon after the attack, army and police arrived on the spot and launched a search operation. Sources in the government said that after the attack, directions have been passed to all officials to secure places where the back to village programmes are being organised.

The first phase was launched in June when J&K was a full-fledged state and the then J&K governor, Satya Pal Malik, described the programme as an outreach for people in far-off villages.

WASHINGTON: A 19-year-old Indian-origin student was sexually assaulted and strangled to death at a campus parking garage in Chicago by a man on parole, police said on Monday, according to reports.

The woman came from Hyderabad and was an honours student at the University of Illinois in Chicago (UIC). She was found dead in the back seat of a family-owned vehicle on Saturday.

The 26-year-old assailant, Donald Thurman, was arrested on Sunday from a Chicago metro station. He is not associated with the university.

On Monday, he was formally charged with first-degree murder and aggravated sexual assault. He is scheduled to appear before

CHICAGO HORROR

WHAT HAPPENED

■ The 19-year-old student is walking to her car in a campus parking garage at 1.35am on Saturday

■ Footage shows a man following her to the garage. He leaves 35mins later

■ On Saturday, her family calls the police, saying she hadn't been heard from since Friday

■ Police track her phone to the garage, where she is found dead in the back seat of her vehicle

THE CULPRIT

■ Donald Thurman, 26, is charged with murder and aggravated sexual assault

■ In 2015, he was given 6yrs for armed robbery. He was released on parole in Dec 2018

■ He was arrested on Sunday and Chicago Police officials said he subsequently gave a full confession a judge on Tuesday, media reports said.

The medical examiner ruled the death a homicide by strangulation. According to the university, the victim was a sophomore (second year student) and kinesiology major.

The university said in a statement that her family reported to the University Police on Saturday that she had not been heard from since Friday evening.

Her phone was "pinged" to the Halsted Street Parking Garage,

AYODHYA CASE

Sunni Waqf Board says it won't challenge verdict

LUCKNOW: The Sunni Central Waqf Board (SCWB), which was one of the main parties to the Ram Janmabhoomi-Babri Masjid title dispute, on Tuesday announced that it would not file a review petition against the Supreme Court's verdict in the case but said it was yet to decide whether to accept the five-acre alternative plot that the court ordered in lieu of the demolished mosque.

The announcement came over a week after two prominent Muslim organisations, the All India Muslim Personal Law Board (AIMPLB) and the Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind, on November 17 declared that they will seek a review of the Supreme Court's November 9 verdict that ruled in favour of the Hindu litigants.

SCWB chairman Zufar Farooqi said six out of seven members present at their meeting on Tuesday were of the view that the review petition should not be filed.

India's fearsome foursome storms into history

HT Correspondent
■ letters@hindustantimes.com

NEWDELHI: Holding, Garner, Marshall and Walsh, or Bumrah, Sharma, Yadav and Shami?

India's fast bowlers bounced to a new high in 2019 by collectively averaging an astonishing 15.16 runs per wicket in eight Tests this calendar year — the lowest in the 142-year history of Test cricket.

Among teams that played at least eight Tests in a calendar year, England's fast bowlers in 1912 (led by Frank Foster, Sydney Barnes and Johnny Douglas, and in nine Tests) were pushed to second (16.74).

Australia's pace force of 2000 (Glenn McGrath, Damien Fleming, Brett Lee, Jason Gillespie, Andy Bichel and Steve Waugh and a few batsmen who bowled seam-up for fun) averaged 17.35, in a year when they won all eight Tests during a world record 16 wins in a row.

The West Indies pace sextet of 1986 (Michael Holding, Malcolm Marshall, Joel Garner, Courtney Walsh, Patrick Patterson and Anthony Gray — Richie Richardson bowled one over of seam) is fourth with an average of 19.02.

In all, the Indian pacemen took 95 wickets in 2019 — Bumrah 14 at 13.14, Sharma 25 at 15.56, Shami 33 at 16.67 and Yadav 23 at 13.65.

‘Our message for voters is stability and security’

HT INTERVIEW

RAGHUBAR DAS, Chief minister of Jharkhand

Raghubar Das, 64, is the first chief minister of Jharkhand to complete a full five-year term. He is also the first non-tribal leader to become chief minister of the state, carved out of undivided Bihar 19 years ago. Das is the Bharatiya Janata Party's (BJP) chief ministerial face in the five-phase election that begins on November 30. The BJP is contesting the election on its own. He spoke to Kumar Uttam in Ranchi about the BJP's campaign, its aim of winning 65-plus assembly seats, and rebellion by ministers, among other things. Edited excerpts:

What is your big message to the voters in this election? Our message is stability and security. People have seen governments of 12 months and six months. We provided stability to Jharkhand. When people vote, they will compare the instability of 14 years and the stability of five years under the BJP. A stable government has been able to improve the security situation in the state. Maoists are on the run. Several of them have surrendered in neighbouring states. Today people move even in night without any fear. Both stability and security have ensured there is development in the state. Jharkhand is full of potential, we have to capitalise on it.

The Opposition has criticised you for policies that are against the interest of tribals and minorities. How do you respond to that? Do you expect the opposition to sing my praises? If tribals were still listening to the Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM), how did their patriarch, Shibu Soren, lose the April-May parliamentary election? We have never done politics of exclusion. Our rivals used to scare people saying if the BJP comes to power, jungle bhi nahi bachega aur zameen bhi (neither forest nor land will remain). In five years, the state's forest cover has gone up by 5 per centage points. Several investigations have shown that the JMM's Soren family grabbed land violated provisions. I will restore these land plots to their original owners.

Your cabinet colleague, Saryu Rai, has rebelled against you. The BJP also has dropped 13 MLAs. Does this show everything is not right in Jharkhand BJP?

A particular individual doesn't matter in an organisation like the Bharatiya Janata Party. There were days during Jan Sangh times when we had to spread our ideology and anybody who was ready to contest an election would get a ticket. Today we fight to win. If the party feels that Raghubar Das is not in a position to win, it will deny a ticket to me.

Why did you not forge any alliance with JD-U of Nitish Kumar and LJP of Ram Vilas Paswan, who are part of NDA? They are allies in Bihar, and not in Jharkhand. Every state has different situation and needs to be responded accordingly.

But you also turned your back on AJSU of Sudesh Mahato whose party shared power with you? We had an alliance with them in the Lok Sabha election. We dropped our five-term MP to accommodate AJSU. The BJP knows how to follow coalition dharma. We were ready to concede 8-10 seats for the AJSU but they were asking for numbers beyond their actual strength in Jharkhand.

But you have not fielded a candidate against AJSU chief, Sudesh Mahato. Are you keeping doors open for a post-poll pact?

Politics is always the art of the possible. Which politician will close his doors? Nothing is ruled out in politics.

The BJP has set an ambitious target of winning over 65 of 81 seats. Do you think it is a tall order? One should always aim big. The situation in Jharkhand is different from those in Haryana and Maharashtra. We have done good work and we hope that people will bless us with another term.

There is an alliance of the Congress-JMM-RJD against the BJP. Will this coalition have an impact on you? This is a mistake that pundits often make. When political leaders forge an alliance, they feel it will naturally lead to an alliance between voters. It doesn't happen.

21 tax officials forced to retire over graft allegations

HT Correspondent
letters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: The government on Tuesday forced another 21 tax officials to retire over allegations of corruption, professional misconduct and possession of illegal cash, taking the total number of such officials to 85 since June this year, two finance ministry officials said requesting anonymity. This time the action has been taken against corrupt Central Board of Direct Taxation officials in the rank of income-tax officers (ITO), they said.

"This is the fifth round of operation clean-up undertaken this year. With this, till now 85 officers, including 64 high-ranking tax officers from both Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) and CBDT have been compulsorily retired under Fundamental Rule 56(J)," the first official said.

The rule empowers the government to proceed against corrupt officials on the basis of available evidence. "The same retirement benefits are admissible to these persons [officials compulsorily retired] as applicable to officers upon retirement on normal age of superannuation," the official said.

According to officials, one ITO posted in Rajahmundry was forced to retire because she was caught receiving ₹150,000 bribe. Another official in Visakhapatnam was trapped by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI), which recovered ₹75,000 from his office in addition to the recovery of ₹30,000 during the operation.

I&B plans law to register news websites with RNI

HT Correspondent
letters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: The Union Information and Broadcasting ministry is planning to bring in a legislation that will make it mandatory for news websites to get themselves registered with the Registrar of Newspapers of India (RNI).

According to a draft of the "Registration of Press and Periodicals (RPP)" Bill 2019—put up by the I&B ministry on its website—"publishers of news on digital media shall register themselves with the Registrar of Newspapers of India in such manner and giving such particulars as may be prescribed".

The bill does not specify if it will require websites of newspapers registered with RNI to be registered separately. It defines "news on digital media" in a broad manner as any news content that "can be transmitted over the internet, computer or mobile networks and includes text, audio, video and graphics".

Among other provisions, the act mandates that there will be a Press Registrar General.

The Press Registrar General would empowered to obtain annual statements from a printer

THE BILL DOES NOT GO INTO DETAILS OF HOW IT WILL DEFINE WHAT CATEGORIES OF WEBSITES THAT ARE TO BE COVERED. IT DEFINES 'NEWS ON DIGITAL MEDIA' IN A BROAD MANNER and a periodical to verify the circulation figures and also to revise, revoke or suspend registration of a periodical.

The draft bill also provides for an Appellate Board.

It would be called the Press and Registration Appellate Board, which will have the chairman of the Press Council of India as one of its members. There will be another member who would be nominated by the Press Council of India from amongst its members.

Any person aggrieved by an order of the Press Registrar General with regard to refusal of registration or cancellation or suspension of registration can approach the Appellate Board, the draft said.

One of the sections of the proposed legislation pertains specifically to the digital media.

This section says that the "publishers of news on Digital Media shall register themselves with the Registrar of Newspapers of India in such manner and giving such particulars as may be prescribed".

However, it was not immediately clear which of the provisions related to print media, if at all, would also apply on the digital publishers once they register. Another significant aspect of the bill is that it proposes to do away with the earlier provision under the Press and Registration of Books (PRB) Act, 1867, of prosecution of publishers.

The bill proposes to have a simple system of registration of papers.

According to the ministry, the new bill proposes to remove the existing provisions relating to the registration of books and matters related to it.

The bill also proposes to do away with the existing procedure of furnishing of declaration by publishers and printers before the district magistrate and its subsequent authentication, the ministry said.

CM promises higher paddy MSP

HT Correspondent

RAIPUR: Chhattisgarh chief minister Bhupesh Baghel said his government will launch a new scheme to provide ₹2500 per quintal to farmers while procuring paddy.

His comments came a day after he announced that the state will procure paddy from December 1 at ₹1,815 per quintal for common grade, and at ₹1,835 for grade A. The Opposition said his stand was departure from his 2018 poll promise of buying paddy at ₹2,500 per quintal.

"A five-member committee has been constituted to study how ₹2,500 per quintal benefit could be ensured to farmers. The committee will submit its report ahead of the upcoming budget session and thereafter new scheme will be formed," said Baghel in the state assembly on Wednesday. The minimum support price for paddy will be given to farmers as per the rate fixed by the Centre, while a new scheme will be initiated in order to pay the farmers the difference amount to make it ₹2500 per quintal, he clarified.

On Monday, Baghel said the state government is committed to fulfilling all pre-poll promises made to farmers, and blamed the central government for not agreeing to the state's demand for increasing the MSP to ₹2,500 per quintal.

But the opposition Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) said it will hold protests across Chhattisgarh against the government's decision to procure paddy at the MSP fixed by the Centre. Reacting to the decision, former chief minister and BJP national vice-president Raman Singh said the Congress government betrayed the farmers by not procuring paddy at the rate promised during polls. "The BJP, along with the farmers of the state, will protest at 1,380 paddy procurement centres of the state on December 1 and will also submit a memorandum to the government," Singh said. Janta Congress Chhattisgarh (JCC) president Amit Jogi too said Baghel have fooled the people of the state.

Sunni Waqf board not to challenge Ayodhya verdict

HT Correspondent & Agencies

LUCKNOW: The Sunni Central Waqf Board (SCWB), which was one of the main parties to the Ram Janmabhoomi-Babri Masjid title dispute, on Tuesday announced that it would not file a review petition against the Supreme Court's verdict in the case.

In a press release, the SCWB also said that it was yet to decide whether to accept the five-acre alternative plot that the court ordered in lieu of the demolished

Babri Mosque in Ayodhya. The announcement came over a week after two prominent Muslim organisations, the All India Muslim Personal Law Board (AIMPLB) and the Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind, on November 17 declared that they will seek a review of the Supreme Court's verdict. The two groups rejected the court's offer of alternative land for the mosque, saying it was against Islamic laws to take anything in lieu of a religious place. The Supreme Court on November 9 ruled in favour of the Hindu litigants in the case and paved the way for the construction of a Ram Temple over the disputed land in Ayodhya.

Zufar Farooqi, the SCWB chairman, said that they decided against filing a review after considering the Supreme Court's verdict.

He added that six members of the SCWB present at their meeting on Tuesday were of the view that the review petition should not be filed. "Advocate Abdur Razaq Khan [the seventh member] has put in his dissent as he was in favour of filing a review petition," said Farooqi.

Farooqi said that they also discussed whether or not to accept the five-acre alternative land at the meeting. "...the [SCWB] members felt they needed more time to decide on the matter..." he said. "All further action in compliance with the order of the Supreme Court, including the issue of five-acre land in Ayodhya, is still in consideration of the board and no decision has yet been taken. The members of the board have asked for more time to formulate their views."

Bharatiya Janata Party spokesman Shah Nawaz Hussain welcomed the SCWB's announcement, saying it is in the national interest and aimed at maintaining national harmony.

He added that the Supreme Court's verdict in the Ayodhya case has been accepted by all. "The way Hindus and Muslims showed maturity and compassion towards each other post the verdict shows how the brotherhood among Indians is above all," he said.
